This year CAFY has partnered with the Prince George's County Police Department, Department of Parks and Recreation, Yahweh International Outreach, Domestic Violence Wears Many Tags and I'm Bruised But Not Broken in honor of National Crime Victims' Rights Week. In support of this commemorative week we are hosting a block party with the intentions of "Expanding Our Circle, Reach All Victims" which is the NCVR Week's theme this year. The CAFY Unity Day is open to all members of the Prince George's County community, this day is a chance to educate the community, promote togetherness and honor all survivors of crime.

The services that you offer the community are a great asset and we would love for you to be able to attend our event and share your information with our attendees. CAFY Unity Day is all about engaging community members and making them aware of just what Prince George's County has to offer.

CAFY Unity Day would benefit tremendously from your services.
